

Websites About Australian Indigenous Cultures

<http://www.abc.net.au/dustechoes/>

Dust Echoes is a series of twelve beautifully animated dreamtime stories from Central Arnhem Land, telling stories of love, loyalty, duty to country and aboriginal custom and law.

<http://usmob.com.au/index.html>

With Us Mob, you can follow central Australian Aboriginal teenagers Charlie, Della, Harry and Jacquita as they head off on journeys full of fun, excitement and crisis.

<http://burarra.questacon.edu.au/home.html>

Great website for kids to learn about Aboriginal life in northern Australia.

<http://www.indigenoustralia.info/index.php>

This site has information on languages, culture, The Dreaming, social structures and more. Indigenous Australia Content Written By Aboriginal People

<http://www.abc.net.au/schoolstv/nations/default.htm>

This series is an introduction to Aboriginal culture and society for upper primary and lower Secondary school students. Many Nations, One People offers insight to viewers at a personal level through engaging Aboriginal characters drawn from a variety of urban, regional and remote situations.

<http://www.loreoftheland.com.au/>

Lore of the Land is designed to encourage us to live in harmony with each other and with the land we each call home. Through deepening our knowledge of who we are and where we are together, we can create a new story.

<http://australianmuseum.net.au/Stories-of-the-Dreaming>

Hear some stories of the history and culture of Australia's Indigenous people, handed down since the beginning of time.

<http://www.abc.net.au/messageclub/>

Things to read, learn and play.

<http://www.samuseum.sa.gov.au/aacg/index.htm>

Australian Indigenous cultures gallery at the South Australian Museum

<http://www.bushmechanics.com/home.htm>

This web-site is dedicated to the amazing ingenuity of the indigenous mechanics. Whether it be finding a solution to a flat tyre when you've got no spare or overcoming many obstacles of the notorious Tanami Track by playing the Bush Mechanics game. This site is full of information and new experiences.

<http://www.yothuyindi.com/>

Yo Manymuk! Mandawuy here, welcome to Yothu Yindi on the web. Find out about our band and our music. Look at some of our music videos or listen to some of our music and find out more about Indigenous Australia.

<http://www.dnathan.com/VL/index.htm>

There are more than 200 Australian Indigenous languages. Less than 20 languages are strong, and even these are endangered: the others have been destroyed, live in the memories of the elderly, or are being revived by their communities. This site has annotated links to 231 resources for about 80 languages. About 35% of these resources are produced or published by Indigenous people.